Early Christian Thinkers - InterVarsity Press
"In Early Christian Thinkers, Paul Foster has assembled a team of world-renowned scholars to give us a refreshing look at the lives and influence of twelve pivotal figures of early Christianity. From Justin, Irenaeus and Theophilus, to Perpetua, Origen, Gregory Thaumaturgos and Eusebius, this masterful collection deals with history, sociopolitical relationships, theology, apologetics, lives, martyrdom, in short, as Frost calls it, "the intellectual legacy and cultural heritage" of a faith.

Paul Foster in his compilation of essays, Early Christian Thinkers, attempts very effectively to demonstrate the importance of knowing our roots. Knowing the way those in the church, thought, wrote, and lead is crucial in our understanding of how we as church leaders are to develop, grow, and even learn from those who have gone before. It was during this period that numerous thinkers
