I enjoyed the novel "Substitute Me," by Lori L. Tharps.

This novel concerns the wonderful bonds that can develop between employers and their nannies. In addition, it reveals the liaisons that can develop between the male employer and the nanny. This is not new. We have read newspaper headlines concerning actors and politicians having liaisons with the family's nanny or babysitter. However, it

Substitute Me Lori L. Tharps

Substitute Me is my first novel. Inspired by my own fruitless search for a nanny in New York City after the birth of my first son, the book began as a question in my own mind that I wanted to answer through fiction. And that question was: What does a woman have to give up
