From the moment I heard of Harper in the book The Accidental Vampire I thought he sounded like he was an interesting character. So I was a little sad when he found a life mate and that we wouldn't hear from him again. I was so glad when I read he would be getting a book although it would be with a different female. So I bought the book excited to read Harper's story and didn't end up finishing The Accidental Vampire Audiobook | Lynsay Sands | Audible ...

Would you consider the audio edition of The Accidental Vampire to be better than the print version? I enjoy all of Lynsay Sands books. They make me laugh. However I can not recommend this one because the last chapter is missing. Victor was just about to talk with his brother, the head of the Vampire Council when it ended. I have notified audible.com and hopefully they will be able to find
